

What does it mean to be British?

- 1) Identify one main benefit of being a citizen.
- 2) Identify one right and one responsibility of being a citizen.
- 3) Identify what is meant by the term active citizenship.
- 4) What is the individualistic view of citizenship?
- 5) What is the communitarian view of citizenship?
- 6) The sociologist T H Marshall set out a model of three stages in the development of citizens' rights. What are the three stages?
- 7) Identify one example of a civil right, a political right, a social right and a moral right.
- 8) What are some of the difficulties with defining what being British is?
- 9) What is meant by the term culture?
- 10) What is learnt during the primary stage of socialisation?
- 11) What is learnt during the secondary stage of socialisation?

