

LAW ESSAY – AS-2 (Please attach this sheet to your completed essay)

This answer/essay should be word-processed and handed to your Laws Tutor by the date specified on the essay schedule.

Essay Title/Question:

- (a) What part is played by juries and lay magistrates in the resolution of civil and criminal cases? (40 marks).
- (b) Examine critically the arguments for and against the use of either juries or lay magistrates in the English Legal System. (60 marks) AEB

AS/A2 Law Students

Possible	Knowledge and Understanding 50%	Evaluation and Analysis 40%	Communication & Presentation 10%	Grand TOTAL
1	41-50%	34-40%	9-10%
2	31-40%	26-33%	7-8%
3	21-30%	17-25%	5-6%
4	11-20%	9-16%	3-4%
5	1-10%	1-8%	1-2%

AT THE END OF EVERY ESSAY YOU MUST ATTACH AN ILP ASSESSMENT SHEET and give a detailed answer to each of the below questions...

1. How many marks out of 10 would you give yourself for answering the question/issues within the essay title? Explain why.
2. How many marks out of 10 would you give yourself for your essay/answer structure? Explain why.
3. How many marks out of 10 would you give yourself for the depth of content in your essay (note that content derives from your reading and research. A thin essay will generally obtain low marks)? Explain why.
4. How many marks out of 10 would you give yourself for the analysis shown in your essay? Explain why.
5. What grade (A-E) would you give for your answer to the essay/assignment?

Students Name:

Class/Block: Laws Tutor:

START EARLY – there will be NO EXTENSIONS OF TIME. If you hand in this work late – you will fail this assignment and this will be registered on your records. Disciplinary action may follow if this work is handed in late.