

Resolving Disputes

1. Give two examples of an alternative source of legal advice other than a solicitor?
2. Which piece of legislation made legal advice more accessible to people?
3. What service deals with criminal legal advice?
4. What service deals with civil legal advice?
5. Name the three elements for the Criminal Defence Service?
6. For representation under the Criminal Defence Service, what test is considered before your application is successful?
7. What will the losing party in a civil case have to pay?
8. What Commission controls spending under The Civil Legal Aid Scheme?
9. What is the purpose of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)?

- 10. In order to receive funding, solicitors need what two things?
- 11. Is funding available from The Civil Legal Aid for tribunals?
- 12. Is funding available from The Civil Legal Aid for personal injury claims?
- 13. How is potential funding of cases tested under The Civil Legal Aid Scheme?
- 14. What is a conditional fee agreement?
- 15. Name five types of alternative dispute resolution (ADR)?