

Copyright ...

- Strode's College Laws students are free to make use of this 'Pdf Print files' for study purposes (they should print them off and take them to class).
- Others should ask before copying or using these 'Pdf Print Files'.
- Personal copyright of Dr Peter Jepson - law@peterjepson.com

A starter for 10

- Produce a diagram which explains the election of the President of the USA.
- Include two sections. The first for the nomination process, the second the election.

Student presentations.....

- Students to produce power point presentations for the class. Each groups will present on one of the following areas:
- 1. Elections and the constitution. Looking at Presidential and Congressional elections (including the recruitment of candidates).
- 2. Factors and issues influencing candidate selection. Including Primaries and Caucuses, the National Nominating Conventions, the workings of the Electoral College and its impact on campaigns.

Student presentations.....

- Group 3. The importance of money in recent and contemporary American election campaigns.
- Group 4. The role of the media in recent and contemporary election campaigns.
- Group 5. The use of referendums. Initiatives and propositions at state level and debates concerning their use.